

W. J. CLEARY SAYS HE LIKES THIS DISTRICT

William J. Cleary, who was in Kingman a short time ago, relates the manner in which his attention was attracted to the Katherine section. Said Mr. Cleary: "One day last April I was changing a tire on my car away out on the desert between Mohave and Barstow when Charley Miller, of the Katherine Extension Mining company came along and volunteered to help get the car going. We talked over the mining districts of the country and as I was going into Calico, California, I concluded to join Mr. Miller's party. He told me of the Katherine and of the immense veins of the locality and I was so impressed that I drove over to the district, after concluding my inspection of the Calico mine. After looking over the mines that have been under development at Katherine I took over the Gold Chain Annex from Rohn, Morris and Phillips, paying these gentlemen cash for the property. Associated with me in the enterprise are a few Fresno, California, vineyardists, and we are preparing for the installation of machinery and the development of the property to prove up the promises offered by the surface outcrop. Assays taken from the surface gave as high as $1000 gold per ton and 18 inches of vein gave $53. A superficial shaft has been sunk on the vein which shows the vein to be widening. The work done on the surface of the vein shows it to be 40 feet wide and the value across this big width to be $5. The work proposed on the property will be near the junction of the two important veins."

PLACING JOBLESS DISABLED EX-SERVICE MEN IN KINGMAN

S. E. Hollister was in Kingman last week in the interests of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau which he represents in Northern Arizona. The work of the organization is the placement and the rehabilitation of disabled world war veterans. The government is making every effort to fix up these cases and giving all men an opportunity to take up and learn some trade or profession, at government expense. Mr. Hollister stated that he had received a very encouraging response from the business men of Kingman in their offering to place these boys in their various places of business where they might learn a trade.

A Reasonable Request

A justice of the peace, who had officiated at a marriage in his office a month previously, received the following note signed jointly by bride and groom:

"Dear Judge: You remember making us two man and wife four weeks ago? Well, everything seemed all right then. We each seemed just the right person for the other."

"But since then things have changed and reflection has convinced us that it must have been a case of mistaken identity. So if you will revoke our license on that ground you will greatly oblige."

(Signed)

John Howard,
Millie Howard."
